

1.5 – Need and Desire Hearing

Unless a municipality passes an ordinance explicitly stating otherwise, a municipality that receives an application to have a marijuana retail center situated within it's borders shall hold a public hearing to determine whether the residents and business owners or managers of the designated neighborhood need and desire that a retail marijuana license be issued.